Arts Development Advisory Committee Meeting	about the Mayor’s Celebration of the Arts and the Young Artist Legacy Award grants.
Decarbonizing Transportation	Webinar: “From personal transportation to long haul freight, how fast can we decarbonize, how much will be electrified vs other solutions, and what are the limiting factors affecting the pace of change? Join David, Sara, Ed, and special guest Amy Myers Jaffe, research professor and managing director of the Climate Policy Lab at Tufts University Thursday, April 8 at 10 a.m. MT / 12 p.m. ET as they break down the steps to decarbonizing transportation. They’ll dig into what the transition will mean for Alberta and Canada in terms of demand for oil, changes to local transportation infrastructure, and the potential to capture a part of the new market.”
Sustainable Development & Business (Athabasca University class – March/April)	“ESDB 619 explores the principles, issues, and applications of sustainable development in a management context. Students will discuss the concept of sustainable development as a proposed solution to a range of global and local concerns. We explore such problems as global inequity, overpopulation, over-consumption, and environmental degradation, and unpack the interrelationships among them. We study the role of environmental advocates, and the impact they have on strategic business decisions. We also examine Canadian environmental strategy and global environmental governance issues.”
