

Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada: Primary Calls to Action –Addressed to Municipalities

Call to Action	Impact	Notes
(3) We call upon all levels of government to fully implement Jordan's Principle.	CPS
(43) We call upon federal, provincial, territorial, and municipal governments to fully adopt and implement the UNDRIP as the framework for reconciliation.	*Entire org.	*Adopting the UN Declaration as a framework has numerous potential financial, planning, legal and legislative implications for the City.
(47) We call upon fed, prov, terr, and municipal governments to repudiate concepts used to justify European sovereignty over Indigenous peoples and lands, such as the Doctrine of Discovery and terra nullius, and to reform those laws, government policies, and litigation strategies that continue to rely on such concepts.	Legislative Services	Will need to identify whether there are any policies or bylaws which apply.
(55) We call upon all levels of government to provide annual reports or any current data requested by the National Council for Reconciliation so that it can report on the progress towards reconciliation.	Intergovernmental Affairs
(57) We call upon fed, prov, terr, and municipal governments to provide education to public servants on the history of Aboriginal peoples, including the history and legacy of residential schools, the UNDRIP, Treaties and Aboriginal rights, Indigenous law, and Aboriginal–Crown relations. This will require skills based training in intercultural competency, conflict resolution, human rights, and anti-racism.	Human Resources Legislative Services	Training programs/workshops will need to be developed for Council and Administration.
(77) We call upon prov, terr, municipal, and community archives to work collaboratively with the National Centre for Truth and Reconciliation to identify and collect copies of all records relevant to the history and legacy of the residential school system, and to provide these to the National Centre for Truth and Reconciliation.	CPS Museum

Truth and Reconciliation Commission of Canada: Secondary Calls to Action – Impacting Municipalities

Call to Action	Impact	Notes
(75) We call upon the fed. govt to work with prov, terr, and municipal governments, churches, Aboriginal communities, former residential school students, and current landowners to develop and implement strategies and procedures for the ongoing identification, documentation, maintenance, commemoration, and protection of RS cemeteries or other sites at which residential school children were buried. This is to include the provision of appropriate memorial ceremonies and commemorative markers to honour the deceased children.	Legislative Services Museum/ Cultural Services	Initial search has not located cemetery records, however we will continue to research and will forward any records that might become available.
(87) We call upon all levels of government, in collaboration with Aboriginal peoples, sports halls of fame, and other relevant organizations, to provide public education that tells the national story of Aboriginal athletes in history.	Recreation and Parks Museum/ Cultural Services
(88) We call upon all levels of government to take action to ensure long-term Aboriginal athlete development and growth, and continued support for the North American Indigenous Games, including funding to host the games and for provincial and territorial team preparation and travel.	Recreation and Parks
(92) We call upon the corporate sector in Canada to adopt the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples as a reconciliation framework and to apply its principles, norms, and standards to corporate policy and core operational activities involving Indigenous peoples and their lands and resources.	Economic Development	