BACKGROUND AND DISCUSSION

It was identified that this Council Policy was scheduled for a maintenance review in 2019. While the overall theme of the policy is still relevant, attached are suggested edits that capture potential adjustments including the feedback received from Council at the October 15th, 2019 GPFC meeting. As indicated in the red-lined attachment, wording and definitions have been added and updated to be more reflective of current practices, language has been updated to reflect current corporate practices, and content is enhanced for some of the listed areas of work.

As per Council feedback at GPFC, grammatical edits were made, definitions to the terms “bullying” (from the National Centre Against Bullying) and “discrimination” (based on decisions from the Supreme Court of Canada) were added, and under the Standards section 1e, what was intended by engagement was further described to provide clarity.

STAKEHOLDER COMMUNICATIONS OR ENGAGEMENT

The original draft policy (2014) was shared with over 100 community partners and residents to allow the opportunity for input. It was posted on the City’s website and ads were placed in City Lights to create awareness and invite input. As the 2019 suggested revisions are relatively minor, no public engagement was sought.
