ALIGNMENT TO COUNCIL DIRECTION OR MANDATORY STATUTORY PROVISION

At the December 1, 2011 Budget meeting the following motion was passed:

Moved by Councillor Heron (PM11-11)

The City of St. Albert establishes Young Artists Legacy Grant Program using the $19,617.00 surplus from the 2011 Lieutenant Governors Gala Event. The funds to be placed in a City Reserve and only the interest earned be used for the grant program. The City of St. Albert will allocate $1,000.00 per year to be added to the annual interest earned. Grants to be reviewed by the St. Albert Cultivates the Arts Society, including a City of St. Albert representative.

November 5, 2012

(C515-2012) Moved by Councillor Heron

That Policy C-CS-10 - Lieutenant Governor Distinguished Young Artists Legacy Program be approved.

CARRIED UNANIMOUSLY

BACKGROUND AND DISCUSSION

Nine applications were received in 2019 totaling $4,175 in requests for funding. The St. Albert Cultivates the Arts Society, including a representative from the Cultural Services division of the Community Services Department, reviewed the applications in a round table forum. Each member reviewed the applications for eligibility and allocations were recommended based on a maximum of $500 per individual as stipulated in Council Policy C-CS-10 - Lieutenant Governor Distinguished Young Artists Legacy Program.

The Committee recommends that the following funding allocations be approved by Council for 2019.

Applicant #1: Sam Daly

Funding recommendation: $500

Sam is attending Theatre Alberta's Arts Trek from July 21 to 27, 2019. This is a week-long theatre camp with professional instruction.

Applicant #2: Jacob Kryger

Funding recommendation: $500

Jacob is attending the Leigh Howard Stevens Summer Seminar in New Jersey from June 2 - 14, 2019. This is a two-week long seminar for marimba players and percussionists.

Applicant #3: Alicia Krips

Funding recommendation: $500

Alicia is attending the Domaine Forget Academy summer program in Quebec from June 2 - 17, 2019. This is a two-week intensive program for French horn players which includes private lessons, masterclasses, workshops and a student concert.

Applicant #4: Morgan Lynn Delia Henderson

Funding recommendation: $400

Morgan is attending Youth Write in Bragg Creek, Alberta from July 7 - July 12, 2019.
